

Central Banks and the Common Good

Banques centrales et bien commun

International Conference

Paris, 19 January 2024

Maison de la Recherche, 4 rue des Irlandais, Paris 5^e, France

Programme

8:45-9:15	Welcome coffee
9:15-9:30	Opening remarks
9:30-10:15	Keynote speech Yves-Marie Péréon (Université Paris Panthéon-Assas, CERSA) The Chairman and the President
10:15-10:30	Coffee break
Session 1	Communication & Social Policy (Chair: Laurence Harris)
10:30-11:00	Sylvérie Herbert (Banque de France) Vers plus de clarté dans la communication des banques centrales
11:00-11:30	Stefan Kesting (University of Leeds Business School) & Hendrick Theine (Vienna University for Economics and Business) Central Bank communication for the common good? How can Habermas's theory of deliberative democracy underpin central bankers' communication as a monetary policy tool, a source of data on the state of the economy and as an instrument to foster a sense of legitimacy?
11:30-12:00	Serena Merrino (University College London), Keagile Lesame (National Treasury, South Africa) The effects of macroprudential policy on credit allocation in South Africa
12:00-12:30	Frédéric Lebaron (ENS Saclay, IDHES) & Aykiz Dogan (Université de Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne, IÉDES) La féminisation des positions dirigeantes au sein des banques centrales : quelques données et hypothèses

12:30-14:00	Buffet lunch
14:00-14:45	Keynote speech Shiv Chowla (Bank of England) Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC) – Public money for the public good?
14:45-15:00	Coffee break
Session 2	Central Banks and Climate Change (Chair: Jézabel Couppey-Soubeyran)
15:00-15:30	Jérôme Deyris (Université Paris Nanterre, EconomiX, CNRS) Warning Words in a Warming World: Central Bank Communication and Climate Change
15:30-16:00	Paola D'Orazio (Universität Chemnitz) Navigating the Green Dilemma: Central Banks' Quest for Climate Resilience and Market Neutrality
16:00-16:30	Ismail Ertürk (University of Manchester) Green Swan Central Banking and Central Bank Mandate for Climate Risk
16:30-16:45	Coffee break
16:45-17:45	Roundtable Banques centrales : techniciennes ou acteurs (géo)politiques ? Jézabel Couppey-Soubeyran (Université Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne, CES) Clément Fontan (Université Catholique de Louvain) Laurence Harris (Université Sorbonne Nouvelle, CREW) Jean-François Ponsot (Université Grenoble-Alpes, PACTE) Laurence Scialom (Université Paris Nanterre, EconomiX)
17:45-18:00	Closing remarks